Investing in our schools

The NSW Government is investing $6.7 billion over four years to deliver more than 190 new and upgraded schools to support communities across NSW. In addition, a record $1.3 billion is being spent on school maintenance over five years. This is the largest investment in public education infrastructure in the history of NSW.

The NSW Department of Education is committed to delivering new and upgraded schools for communities across New South Wales. The delivery of these important projects is essential to the future learning needs of our students and supports growth in the local economy.

Ajuga, Campbell House and Glenfield House Schools

A project to upgrade Ajuga, Campbell House and Glenfield Park Schools for Specific Purposes is underway. The upgrade will deliver:

- 15 new permanent learning spaces – five for each school
- Six new life skills spaces – two for each school
- Practical activity spaces for each of the three schools
- A new multi-purpose hall and associated fitness centre to be shared by all three schools.

Progress summary

Work is progressing well with the installation of roofs for the new learning spaces at Ajuga and Glenfield Park.

Other progress includes the installation of the concrete slab for the new multi-purpose hall and continuing work on the new swimming pool amenities at Glenfield Park.
